Meeting Purpose: To collectively identify strategies to preserve and improve CH public tennis court facilities; to enhance communication; and provide an update on current projects. To acknowledge completed positive change in these areas.

Welcome: Phil Fleischmann, Parks and Recreation Director
Jerry Edwards, Friend of CH Public Tennis Community

Introductions: Any New Participants

Quick Updates of Maintenance Items

Full list of requested court maintenance items with completion status may be found at:
<here>

Ephesus

- Backboard (installed – should it be restricted to tennis only?)
- Hook for attaching squeezes and brooms to fence
- Bamilex resurfacing (dates should be published on courts and website)
- PB seating area along sidewalk (concerns)

Cedar Falls and Hargraves

- Lights and timers repaired?

Other ongoing or planned maintenance?

Projects and Discussions

Cedar Falls Tennis Renovations Project

- Updates to project and schedule

Hargraves Renovation Project

- Updates to project and schedule

Ephesus Tennis Courts - Preservation and Improvements

- Status of co-share proposal?
- Discuss: Any plans in work to create project for implementing and acquiring funding for long term solution such as from American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA)
- If town funds new PB complex, project should include restoring the two converted Ephesus courts back to tennis, creating six courts providing a quiet environment with opportunities for more lessons, youth camps and for USTA, school teams, and other organizational play.

Oakwood Park

- Any plans and funds to make the court as minimum playable?
- Note: Only court within walking distance for Glenn Lennox residential area.

Other Discussion Items?

Closing

Future Tennis Stakeholder Meetings
