Meeting Purpose: To collectively identify strategies to preserve and improve CH public tennis court facilities; to enhance communication; and provide an update on current projects. To acknowledge completed positive change in these areas.

Welcome: Phil Fleischmann, Parks and Recreation Director
Jerry Edwards, Friend of CH Public Tennis Community

Introductions: Any New Participants

Quick Updates of Maintenance Items

Full list of requested court maintenance items with completion status may be found at:
<here>

- On-going, completed and planned court maintenance activities
- Ephesus resurfacing plans and dates?
- New Maintenance requests and other discussions

Reflections and Thank You: Thank you for all who participated in taking the Survey and speaking at the Commission Board meeting in support of preserving our CH public tennis and for working to improve the conditions of the existing tennis courts

- It is noted that 90% of those completing the survey as tennis players were from Chapel Hill/Orange County. The data supports that the vast majority of those playing tennis on the public courts are from the local communities.
- Other comments/Follow-up from PG&R Commission board meeting held Sept 20, 2022

Projects and Discussions

- Tennis classes @ Ephesus. Tennis community has made several requests over past months to have Ephesus tennis classes added to the town website. What is status and is there a date when these classes will be listed on website?
- Any updates regarding Cedar Falls and Hargraves renovation status and plans
- Other topics

Closing

Future Tennis Stakeholder Meetings

- Tentatively scheduled every other month in 2022. 4th Monday @ 1pm
- However, to avoid conflict with Thanksgiving, proposing second Monday in November. Next meeting would be Nov 14, 2022 @ 1pm

2022 Goals: To continue moving forward with the actions and projects noted and to keep open communication between Tennis Community and Parks and Recreation. Be guided by the principle of “fairness and transparency”.

Vision: Preserve and improve CH public tennis courts and facilities
