Meeting Purpose: To collectively identify strategies to preserve and improve CH public tennis court facilities; to enhance communication; and provide an update on current projects. To acknowledge completed positive change in these areas.

Welcome: Phil Fleischmann, Parks and Recreation Director
Jerry Edwards, Friend of CH Public Tennis Community

Introductions: Any New Participants

Quick Updates or Maintenance Items

Full list of requested court maintenance items with completion status may be found at: <here>

- Ephesus resurfacing update, status, and schedule for completion. Concern over unleveled dips in court 4.
- Ephesus light bulb replacement plans/schedule
- Ideas to relieve Ephesus sidewalk congestion
- Any other maintenance requests and discussions

Reflections and Thank You:

- Thank you to P&R for putting up sign saying Ephesus backboard should not be used when tennis players are on courts.
- Shout out (thanks) to Jonathan Ray for participating in tour of courts on Oct 11 with several friends of CH public tennis. Jonathan provided excellent comments from his experience with Durham, reflections of what he saw as his view firsthand of the CH courts and conditions, and attentively listened to our discussions of history and efforts to preserve, maintain and improve the tennis courts.

Projects and Discussions

- Updates regarding Cedar Falls and Hargraves renovation status, plans, schedule and funding.
- Status of Oakwood (any way to make it playable?)
- Tennis classes @ Ephesus. Tennis community has made several requests over past months to have Ephesus tennis classes added to the town website. Things have been in limbo with court resurfacing but like to move forward. Need more specific class offering details from EMPACT.
- Other topics

Closing

Last meeting scheduled for 2022

- Any year end reflections, new year plans or projections

Next Planned Tennis Stakeholder Meetings

- Tentatively scheduled every other month in 2023. 4th Monday @ 1pm
- Next meeting date is January 23, 2023.
